

RESOLUTION IN MEMORY OF PHILIP HUDDLESTON

---

P-16 Council
Agenda Item H
September 21, 2001

P-16 Council member Philip Huddleston died July 5, 2001. The Council on Postsecondary Education passed the attached resolution in his memory at its July meeting.

A RESOLUTION IN LOVING MEMORY OF PHILIP I. HUDDLESTON

WHEREAS, Philip I. Huddleston was a devoted father, son, spouse, brother, colleague, and friend; and

WHEREAS, he served on the Council on Postsecondary Education from 1998 until July 2001; and

WHEREAS, his life wove together the fabric of education in Kentucky through his service to the Warren County Council for Literacy, the Bowling Green Board of Education, the state P-16 Council, and the Council on Postsecondary Education; and, most importantly, through the time he spent reading to his children when they were young; and

WHEREAS, Kentucky's future depends on its entire system of education and that system depends on the good work, faith, and dedication of people like Phil Huddleston; and

WHEREAS, he brought a sincere and contagious enthusiasm to postsecondary education in the Commonwealth, rallying support for reform in public forums and private conversations; and

WHEREAS, Phil was a great public citizen of Kentucky, giving his time and talent to the Barren River Regional Crime Council, the Chamber of Commerce, the Arts Alliance, the Rotary Club, and the Port Oliver Yacht Club; and

WHEREAS, he exemplified the finest tradition of the Kentucky lawyer; and

WHEREAS, we are all deeply grateful for the opportunity to have worked with Phil and enjoyed his friendship; and

WHEREAS, in the words of Tennyson, Phil has now "sailed beyond the sunset and the baths of all the western stars";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council on Postsecondary Education does hereby adopt this resolution July 30, 2001, acknowledging Phil Huddleston's many and varied contributions to the people of Kentucky, appreciating the eloquence of his example of public citizenship, feeling sorrow at his passing, but expressing great joy at having known him.

---

Charles Whitehead, Chair

---

Gordon K. Davies, President